

Those Closest to PWDs

West Sumba

Sister-in-laws treat PWDs with great care.

When a PWD returns from fishing, sister-in-laws greet them with attention.

Neighborhood

Family members are always attentive to the needs of PWDs in all aspects of their daily lives.

One admirable trait that can be observed in a family member is their constant consideration for PWDs in their everyday activities and interactions.

The neighborhood is highly knowledgeable about the day-to-day experiences and unique characteristics of PWDs

Pay attention to communicating with TG (PWD), use code, as TG can have intensive conversations with a neighbor.
