

Those Closest to PWDs

Jaya
wijaya

KG is the volunteer coordinator and spokesperson for the Nduga refugees. KG is a generous, compassionate and big-hearted person.

In an effort to create an environment where a peaceful resolution may be found, KG has been attempting to advocate on behalf of the refugee's rights to both the local and Indonesian governments. Their return to their hometowns and a stoppage of the armed war in Nduga are the objectives.

Ms. KG

Chiefs

School Principal

Mr. YK

Cultural Elder

Pastor YK showed generosity. YK enjoyed lending a hand to those in need.

Mr. JH (PWD) was once taken to the hospital by YK.

Human resources were important to school principals. He develops a connection to the displaced kids.

The school principal implemented a program of free educational access without challenging the management.

Chieftain SL was known for his generous nature and unwavering religious devotion.

SL has worked with a number of the local Klen tribes to arrange a place for PWD and his family to stay when they arrive. together with additional refugees.